

The Eparchy of Saint Maron consists of 45 parishes and missions located in 16 states along the East Coast, as well as a Seminary in Washington, DC, a Monastery for 17 contemplative monks, and a Convent for three religious women. This Eighth Annual Benefit Dinner in Manhattan for the Eparchy will provide assistance for educating our seminarians at Our Lady of Lebanon Seminary in Washington, DC; ensuring a better retirement for 13 priests who have served so faithfully; and offering much needed support of the mission communities in our Eparchy.

THE EPARCHY OF SAINT MARON

8TH ANNUAL BENEFIT DINNER

HELPING HANDS – SERVING OTHERS

HONORING
DR. JOSYANN ABISAAB AND MR. HABIB KAIROUZ

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2017

NEW YORK ATHLETIC CLUB, NEW YORK CITY

Dear Friends:

I invite you to the Eighth Annual Benefit Dinner for the Eparchy of Saint Maron, to take place on Thursday, October 5, 2017.

This Benefit Dinner is extremely important for the Eparchy, as it provides needed support for seminarians, poor missions, retired priests, and important ministries. By helping the Eparchy you indirectly help Maronites in the United States and abroad, as we look beyond our own needs to help the persecuted in the Middle East.

We will honor two very special people at this year's Benefit Dinner: Dr. Josyann Abisaab and Habib Kairouz. Josyann and Habib, despite their relatively youthful ages – our youngest honorees ever – have given so much to our community in New York and to those in need in Lebanon. They are good examples of being faithful stewards of the gifts God has given us.

I hope and pray you will be present at this very special Benefit Dinner and support it as much as you can. Because the Eparchy is a model of financial transparency, you can trust that your contributions will be used wisely.

May God bless you for your generosity.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
